

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Case No.: 22-cr-3-wmc

RAMAR A. BROWN,

Defendant.

PLEA AGREEMENT

1. This is the proposed plea agreement between the defendant and the United States in the above-captioned case.
2. PLEA AND PENALTIES: The defendant agrees to plead guilty to Count 1 of the indictment. This count charges a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(1), which carries maximum penalties of ten years in prison, a $250,000 fine, a three-year period of supervised release, and a $100 special assessment. In addition to these maximum penalties, any violation of a supervised release term could lead to an additional imprisonment term pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583. The defendant agrees to pay the special assessment at or before sentencing and understands that the Court will enter an order requiring the immediate special assessment payment under 18 U.S.C. § 3013. In an appropriate case, the defendant could be held in contempt of court and receive an additional sentence for failing to pay the special assessment.
3. RIGHTS WAIVED BY PLEADING GUILTY: The defendant acknowledges by pleading guilty, that he is giving up these rights: (a) to plead not guilty and to persist in that plea; (b) to a jury trial; (c) to be represented by counsel – and if necessary to have the Court appoint counsel – at trial and at every other stage of the trial proceedings; (d) to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses; (e) to be protected from compelled self-incrimination; (f) to testify and present evidence; and (g) to compel the attendance of witnesses.
4. IMMIGRATION CONSEQUENCES: The defendant understands that upon conviction, if he is not a United States citizen, he may be removed from the United States, denied citizenship, and denied future admission to the United States. The defendant nevertheless affirms that he wants to plead guilty regardless of any removal and immigration consequences that his plea may entail, even if the consequence is automatic removal from the United States.

5. FACTUAL BASIS: The defendant agrees that the following facts are true, correct, and that, if this case were to proceed to trial, the government would be able to prove these facts beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant acknowledges, understands, and agrees that he is, in fact, guilty of the offense described herein.

On October 12, 2021, Fitchburg Police Department officers planned to take the defendant into custody. The defendant was located in Madison, Wisconsin and approached by officers. The defendant tried to run away when officers identified themselves. During his flight, the defendant threw a Gucci handbag to the ground. The defendant was taken into custody a short distance away. The Gucci handbag was searched. A loaded Glock 26 9mm handgun with an extended magazine and an ID card for the defendant were located inside the handbag.

The Glock 26 9mm handgun was sent to the Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory for DNA analysis. Analyst Kevin Scott concluded that there was "very strong support" for the inclusion of the defendant's DNA in the DNA profile found in the swab of the front sight of the Glock. Specifically, the analyst found that it was approximately 543 billion times more likely that it was the defendant's DNA than someone else's.

The defendant was previously convicted of Armed Robbery, a felony offense punishable by more than one year in prison, in Dane County, Wisconsin, Circuit Court Case No. 13CF1797. He was sentenced on April 4, 2014, to three years of initial confinement in state prison. The defendant is prohibited by law from possessing a firearm based on his prior felony conviction.

Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives Special Agent Michael Aalto reviewed reports associated with the case and concluded that the Glock 26 9mm handgun possessed by the defendant was manufactured in Georgia and had previously travelled in interstate commerce prior to the defendant's possession. Special Agent Aalto also determined that the Glock 26 9mm handgun met the definition of a firearm under federal law.

Madison, Wisconsin is in the Western District of Wisconsin.

This information is provided to establish a factual basis for the defendant's guilty plea. It is not a full recitation of the defendant's knowledge of, or participation in, this offense.

6. SCOPE OF RESOLUTION: The United States agrees that this guilty plea will completely resolve all possible federal criminal violations that have occurred in the Western District of Wisconsin provided that two conditions are met: (a) the criminal conduct relates to the conduct described in the indictment; and (b) the criminal conduct was known to the United States as of the date of this plea agreement. This agreement not to prosecute is limited to those types of cases for which the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Wisconsin has exclusive decision-making authority. The defendant also understands that the United States will make its full discovery file available to the Probation Office for its use in preparing the presentence report.

7. ACCEPTANCE OF RESPONSIBILITY: The United States agrees to recommend that the Court, in computing the advisory Sentencing Guideline range, and in sentencing the defendant, gives the defendant the maximum available reduction for acceptance of responsibility. This recommendation is based upon facts currently known to the United States and is contingent upon the defendant accepting responsibility according to the factors set forth in USSG § 3E1.1. Further, the United States' agreement to recommend a reduction for acceptance of responsibility is also based on the defendant providing a full and truthful accounting in the required financial statement and, if applicable, the defendant's efforts to make immediate restitution payments. The United States is free to withdraw this recommendation if the defendant has previously engaged in any conduct that is unknown to the United States and is inconsistent with acceptance of responsibility, or if he engages in any conduct between the date of this plea agreement and the sentencing hearing, which is inconsistent with acceptance of responsibility. This recommendation is consistent with the defendant signing this plea agreement on or before March 7, 2022.

8. FINANCIAL STATEMENT: The defendant agrees to complete the attached financial statement and return it to this office within one week of the guilty plea hearing. The defendant agrees that this financial statement will be a full and truthful accounting, including all available supporting documentation. The defendant authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to run the defendant's credit report. The defendant also agrees that the probation office may disclose to the United States all financial statements to be completed by the defendant in connection with the preparation of the presentence report, together with all supporting documents.

9. SENTENCING DISCUSSIONS: Other than agreements specifically set forth in this plea agreement, the defendant understands that sentencing discussions are not part of the plea agreement. The defendant should not rely upon the possibility of a particular sentence based upon any sentencing discussions between defense counsel and the United States, other than those memorialized in this plea agreement.

10. SENTENCING RECOMMENDATIONS: The defendant acknowledges his understanding that the United States has made no promises or guarantees regarding the sentence that will be imposed. The defendant also acknowledges his understanding that the Court may not accept the recommendations, which may be made by the United States, and that the Court can impose any sentence up to and including the maximum penalties set out above.

11. VOLUNTARINESS OF PLEA: The defendant acknowledges that no threats, promises, representations, or agreements exist, other than those set forth in this agreement, to cause the defendant to plead guilty. Defendant acknowledges that he has read this agreement, has carefully reviewed it with his attorney and understands and voluntarily accepts all its terms.

12. THIS IS THE ONLY PLEA AGREEMENT: By our signatures below, the defendant and defense counsel acknowledge that this is the only plea agreement in this case.
